

Questions

The frequency of occlusal dysfunctions generated by occlusal interferences is...?

- a. declining
- b. steady;
- c. declining fast;
- d. growing.

The patient with occlusal dysfunctions can have...?

- a. only dental pains;
- b. only muscle pains;
- c. only temporomandibular joints pains;
- d. dental, muscle or temporomandibular joints pains.

How often would occlusal adjustments be necessary if occlusal interferences were observed when they appear?

- a. never;
- b. always;
- c. rarely necessary;
- d. always necessary.

Which is not used for occlusal adjustments?

- a. round-end tapered diamond;
- b. chamfer diamond;
- c. square-end tapered diamond;
- d. medium wheel diamond.