

Dana Cristina BODNAR

DDS, PhD, Professor
Department of Operative Dentistry
Faculty of Dental Medicine
“Carol Davila” University of Medicine and Pharmacy Bucharest
Bucharest, Romania

Professor Bodnar graduated from the “Carol Davila” University of Medicine and Pharmacy Bucharest in 1992 and she was awarded a PhD degree in Dentistry by the same University in 2006. Since 2015 she has been a tenured Professor at the “Carol Davila” University of Medicine and Pharmacy, Bucharest, in the field of restorative dentistry and a member of the University Council and Senate. She was a Vice-dean for research between 2012-2016. She was also President of the Erasmus Scholarship Commission, Faculty of Dental Medicine, Erasmus Department Coordinator, and evaluator within the research project competition for young researchers at the “Carol Davila” University of Medicine and Pharmacy Bucharest.

Professor Dana Bodnar has published over 55 studies in indexed medical and dental journals and she is the author or co-author of 18 books and book chapters published by national publishing houses. She has lectured at numerous national and international scientific events, symposia and congresses.

Research interests: (1) cariology, (2) dental materials, (3) restorative dentistry, (4) minimal invasive dentistry.