

Georg B. MEYER

DMD, PhD, Dr hc, Professor
Head of Department
for Restorative Dentistry, Periodontology
and Endodontology
Medical Faculty
Ernst-Moritz-Arndt-University Greifswald
Greifswald, Germany

Prof Meyer finished his Dental education in Goettingen, Germany and received his Habilitation in Dentistry (PhD) with the thesis “Development and Application of an Electronic Method for the 3-dimensional Hinge Axis Registration of Mandibular Movements in the Stomatognathic System” in 1987.

In 2006 he received his Professor Dr. honoris causa granted by Moscow State University of Medicine and Dentistry. In his professional career he was Guest Professor at the University of Minneapolis, Minnesota, Department of Biomaterials and now he is Head of Department for Restorative Dentistry, Periodontology and Endodontology and acting Dean of the Dental School at the Ernst-Moritz-Arndt-University Greifswald/Germany.

In 2001 Prof Meyer was elected as President of DGZMK up to 2007. In the period 2003 - 2007 he was Elected member Board of German Research Association (DFG).
Now he is Elected member Science Committee FDI.

He has published several academics textbooks and many articles in international journals from over 30 countries.