

Alexandre MERSEL
DDS, Associate Professor
FDI Europe Continuing
Education Program
Geneva-Cointrin, Switzerland

Professor Alexandre Mersel (DOB: February 21, 1936) is an educationist, researcher and specialist in Prosthodontics. He graduated from the Faculty of Odontology, University of Lyon, France in 1961 and specialized in Prosthodontics, at the Hadassah Faculty of Dental Medicine, Hebrew University of Jerusalem, Israel in 1979. With respect to his career, he has been Associate Professor at the Hadassah Faculty of Dental Medicine since 1992 and also Director of Complete Dentures Prosthodontics and Gerodontics studies (1978-1998) and Head Department of Removable Prosthodontics and Gerodontics at the Haifa Institute for Dental Advanced Studies (1986-1987).

He also acted as consultant to the Prime Minister's commission of Public Health (1982) and Director of Dental Health Services Municipality of Jerusalem (1986-1988). He was also founder and Chairman of the European College of Gerodontology (1994), Convener and Chairman FDI Section of Gerodontology (1997-1999) and Director FDI for the Europe Continuing Education Program (2013-2018). He was awarded Research fellow Myers-JDC-Brookdale Institute of Jerusalem (1981) and The City of Paris Silver Medal (1986).

Currently, he serves as Director of the Geriatric Dentistry Studies, Department of Community Dentistry, at the Hadassah Faculty of Dental Medicine. He also serves as a member of the editorial board of several international journals. He is a member of the Academy of Dentistry International (ADI) and the Pierre Fauchard Academy (PFA). He published 102 scientific articles, 3 chapters in various textbooks and recently, the book "Oral Rehabilitation for Compromised and Elderly Patients" (Springer, 2019).

Research interests: prosthodontics, gerodontics, complete dentures.