

Letizia PERILLO

MD, MS, PhD, Professor, Head, Dean
Orthodontics Division
School of Dentistry
School of Medicine & Surgery
University of Campania Luigi Vanvitelli
Naples, Italy

Università
degli Studi
della Campania
Luigi Vanvitelli

Letizia Perillo (DOB: June 9, 1962) is currently Professor of Orthodontics and Dean of the School of Dentistry, Chairman of the NEBEOP Postgraduate Orthodontic Program, Head of the Orthodontic Division, and Professor of Dentistry with the Medical and Surgery English Course at the University of Campania Luigi Vanvitelli, Naples. She graduated in Medicine and Surgery in 1986 and specialized in Orthodontics in 1989 at the University of Naples Federico II, completed her orthodontic training with a postgraduate fellowship at the University of Michigan in 1993 and a PhD in Interceptive Orthodontics at the University of Florence in 1997.

Moreover, she is Visiting Professor at the University of Alexandria, Egypt (2018-2020), and she was an Adjunct Professor at the University of Alabama, Birmingham, USA (2015-2016).

Letizia Perillo is President Elect of the Italian Society of Orthodontics (SIDO) for 2021, President Elect of the Mediterranean Orthodontic Integration Project (MOIP) for 2022 and AAO Ambassador of the Italian Society of Orthodontics from 2018 to 2020.

Letizia Perillo is member of the WFO, AAO, EHASO, EOS, SIDO and CH Tweed Foundation (clinical instructor), and member of the Editorial Board of several orthodontic and dental journals. She is author and co-author of over 400 publications and 10 textbooks, regular speaker at national and international conferences with several awards and distinctions.

Research interests: (1) early treatment, (2) non-extraction treatment, (3) cleft lip and palate, (4) dentofacial orthopedics, (5) genetics.