

Ingrīda ČĒMA

DDS, PhD, Professor, Head
Department of Oral Medicine
Faculty of Dentistry
RSU Institute of Stomatology
Riga Stradins University
Riga, Latvia

Professor I. Cema (DOB: August 31, 1954) is an educationist, specialist, researcher and administrator in Oral Medicine. I She graduated from the Faculty of Dentistry, Riga Medical Institute (1979) and became Habilitated Doctor of Medicine (PhD in 1998). She has been a Professor of Oral Pathology since 2000.

She has over 30 years of experience as a dentist and maxillo – facial surgeon. She has been working at RAKUS Oncology Centre of Latvia – Head and Neck Department (since 1988) and at the Outpatient Department (since 2000)., She has been Head of Department of Oral Medicine at the Riga Stradins University and Clinical Department at Institute of Stomatology (since 2001).

She served as Dean of the Faculty of Dentistry, Riga Stradins University (2003 – 2013).

She is head of the Latvian Oral Medicine and Pathology Society, Member of the European Oral Medicine Association, International Association of Oral and Maxillofacial Surgeons, Honorary Member of the American Academy of Oral Medicine (2010). She was a member of Scientific advisory council Riga Stradins University (2009 – 2019), She is a member of the editorial board of journal „Stomatology. Baltic, Dental and Maxillo-facial surgery”. She regularly participates in scientific conferences and seminars, lectured at the Mississippi University Dental school (2008). She authored 79 publications in peer reviewed journals, more than 70 oral and poster presentations in international congresses and conferences, more than 100 presentations in local conferences, seminars and meetings.

Research interests: Oral precancers and oral squamous cell carcinoma, treatment of melanoma.