

Fabrizia d'APUZZO

DMD, PhD, Research Fellow
Multidisciplinary Department of
Medico-Surgical and Dental Specialties
University of Campania Luigi Vanvitelli
Naples, Italy

Università
degli Studi
della Campania
Luigi Vanvitelli

Fabrizia d'Apuzzo (DOB: December 18, 1987) graduated in Dental Medicine in October 2012 with honors at the Second University of Naples (Italy) and during her undergraduate course she attended the “Université Lille II Droit et Santé” in Lille (France) between September 2010 and April 2011 as part of an “Erasmus” project, and the University of Trieste (Italy) with a 3-month period travel grant as of December 2011 to perform her experimental thesis.

She received the Postgraduate Diploma in Orthodontics in February 2017 and the PhD in Biomedical and Biotechnological Sciences in December 2019 at the University of Campania “Luigi Vanvitelli”, Naples (Italy).

She is a member of the Società Italiana di Ortodonzia (SIDO), European Orthodontic Society (EOS), American Association of Orthodontists (AAO), World Federation of Orthodontists (WFO), The C.H. Tweed International Foundation for Orthodontic Research & Education, Accademia Italiana di Ortodonzia (AIDOR), Associazione Italiana Specialisti di Ortognatodonzia (ASIO), Associazione Italiana Ortodonzia Linguale (AIOL) and Società Italiana di Allineatori (SIALIGN).

Dr. d'Apuzzo has published as author and co-author more about 30 articles, 3 book chapters and over 40 posters.

She has been a speaker at national and international conferences and she has received several awards and distinctions.

Research interests: biology of tooth movement, early treatment, dentofacial orthopaedics, biomechanics, vibrational spectroscopies, temporomandibular disorders, cleft lip and palate.