

Simona DIANIŠKOVÁ

MD, MS, PhD, Associate Professor
Orthodontic Department
Faculty of Medicine
Slovak Medical University in Bratislava
Bratislava, Slovakia
ERO-FDI President

Dr. Simona Dianišková is a 1992 graduate of the Medical Faculty, Comenius University Bratislava, Slovakia and a Stomatology specialist since 1995.

She was a three-year postgraduate resident at Wuerzburg University, Germany.

In 1998, she specialized in Orthodontics at Comenius University.

Dr. Dianišková has been a private practitioner at DentaDerm in Bratislava, Slovakia since 2000.

She was awarded her PhD at Comenius University in 2006.

Since 2008 she has been Head of the Orthodontic Department of the Slovak Medical University in Bratislava, Slovakia.

In 2008 she graduated from the Master of Public Health programme.

She is an active lecturer at the University and at several scientific sessions and international as well as national congresses. She is a member of the Editor's board of two dentistry journals, namely "Stomatolog" and "Czech Stomatology".

In 2015 she graduated from the Master of Science in Lingual orthodontics programme, Naples University, Naples, Italy.

As a Council member of the Slovak Chamber of Dentists since 2002, she has also chaired the Foreign affairs committee and was a member of the Educational committee.

She holds the position of Director of the Revisory committee of the Slovak Orthodontic Society.

She is a former President of the Council of European Chief Dental Officers (CECDO).

Since December 2022 she has been Associate Professor at the Slovak Medical University in Bratislava, Slovakia.

She is the current President of the European Regional Organization of World Dental Federation (ERO-FDI) (2022-2025).

Research interests: Orthodontics, Clear Aligners, Interceptive treatment, Class 2 in growing patients.